NATUROPOLY
First Edition Board Game—Limited Offer

This first edition of the Chain of Lakes Naturopoly board game will be available June 14, 2008. It features a watercolor drawing of the watershed by local artist, Mary Guntzville. Property deeds include drawings by other local artists. Sponsored by members of the Conservation Network: Torch Lake Protection Alliance, The Watershed Center Grand Traverse Bay, Grand Traverse Regional Land Conservancy, Grass River Natural Area, Tip of the Mitt Watershed Council, Three Lakes Association, Elk/Skegemog Lake Association, Six Mile Lake Association, Friends of Clam Lake.

Add this game to your cottage collection and provide your family and friends with lots of fun for many years to come. Learn about your watershed: the names of the lakes, rivers, and natural areas, as well as the plants or animals.

Only 500 games will be produced, so take advantage of this limited offer. Order one or more for your family today. Cost will be $32 per game (includes tax). Please complete the order form and send it with your check made payable to GRNA, Inc. Pre-sale ends May 31, 2008. Pick up date is Saturday, June 14 from 10-12 at Alden Depot. Questions? Call Nancy Ludwa at 231-409-0567 or Peg Comfort at 231-377-7512
